

PERMISSION SLIP Second Chance Supplies

WHAT: Second Chance Supplies is a community service opportunity for Girl Scouts of all ages as well as any interested parents or siblings to sort through used primary school supplies for charities to collect them. Some of the activities will be: testing out markers, grouping like items, labeling boxes, and matching supplies with listed charity needs. Come as a Troop, come as a Family, or come by yourself! Please plan on providing adult supervision for Daisy & Brownie Scouts. Junior Scouts and older girls may be dropped off if we have enough adult supervision to manage; please contact the organizers first.
